Panel discussion on how productivity can lead to improved profitability and sustainability from a local and international perspective.

The impact of the Global Pandemic that we are currently facing has really put a magnifying glass on the overall resilience of businesses and the need for a more holistic approach. Join the panel of experts on how you as a business (irrespective of size) can be inspired to think and act differently:

- Charlene Steyn - take stock of your situation and to encourage you to plan for improved profitability / sustainability by offering practical “how to” suggestions.
- Junita Rose - Resilience 2.0. Preparing for the next normal: Redefining resilience to ensure sustainability, growth and productivity.
- Lungi Hlalela - Response, Resilient Recovery and continued Reform: a practical example and success story from Afrishore in Mossel Bay working with TOTAL during the height of the 1st wave in 2020.
- Mauri Kotamäki - the strengths and weaknesses of the European and Finnish system during and after the crisis. What is the new normal, how to prepare for it and how to switch the mindset from surviving to thriving?
